

ULUSLARARASI TEMSİL IFALPA BELGESİ

Belge: IFALPA Daily News – 11 September 2013

Tarih: 16.09.2013

Kaynak: IFALPA haberleri · talpa.org

Dear Colleagues,

The IFALPA Daily News is now available online.

Here are today's top headlines. To read more, click on the title:

Airline pilots participate in numerous 9/11 events and ceremonies planned to honor victims of September 11

On this anniversary of 9/11, a number of events and ceremonies will be under way to honor the fallen and the families of those lost on September 11, 2001.

Turkish FM meets families of kidnapped pilots in Lebanon

Foreign Minister Ahmet Davutoğlu met September 10 with the families of two Turkish pilots kidnapped last month in Beirut in a case linked to the Syrian conflict.

PAL, Cebu Pacific cancel September 11-12 Zambo flights on CAAP order

All commercial flights to and from Zamboanga on Wednesday and Thursday were canceled as airport operations in the beleaguered city remains suspended amid an ongoing armed conflict between government troops and Moro gunmen the Civil Aviation Authority of the Philippines said.

Hit by fuel hike, Nepal's airlines warn of suspending services

Nepal's air service providers have warned of suspension of services across the Himalayan country if the government fails to roll-back the recent aviation fuel price hike.

Iraqi government closes Mosul Airport, issues arrest warrant for governor

The governor of Nineveh Province, Atheel Al-Nujaifi, criticized the central government's decision to close Mosul International Airport on Tuesday. No reasons for the closure were given.

Istanbul ideally positioned to be global connection point for air travel within 10 years

At a time of weak economies are hurting the aviation industry worldwide, Turkish capital city of Istanbul is progressing by leaps and bounds. Istanbul is racing ahead with a double digit growth thanks largely to the phenomenal success of Turkish Airlines, said Dr Temel Kotil, Chief Executive Officer, Turkish Airlines.

Wrongly-fitted washer led A300 to veer off runway

Incorrect installation of a washer in the nose-gear torque link axle of an Airbus A300B4 freighter caused a chain reaction that ended with the aircraft's veering off the runway at Bratislava.