

ULUSLARARASI TEMSİL IFALPA BELGESİ

Belge: IFALPA Daily News – 12 February 2013

Tarih: 06.05.2013

Kaynak: IFALPA haberleri · talpa.org

Dear Colleagues,

The IFALPA Daily News is now available online.

Here are today's top headlines. To read more, click on the title:

Airbus leans toward A330-200 to replace Beluga fleet

Airbus has tentatively identified an A330-200 derivative as the most promising long-term candidate to replace its five A300-600ST Beluga oversize transports.

Libya tightens security at airports

Libya will tighten security at its airports and shut its borders with Tunis and Egypt for five days as a security measure ahead of the country's two-year anniversary marking the ouster of Muammar Gaddafi, the prime minister said.

Heathrow hits turbulence over airport charges

British Airways, Lufthansa and Virgin Atlantic attacked the price increases, which could see landing costs jump from £19.33 per passenger at present to £27.30 by 2018.

ICAO president demands better ATM cooperation

The president of the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) Council has called for greater cooperation among nations to achieve global air traffic management goals.

ECJ: Airlines must look after delayed passengers, period

Europe's highest court, the European Court of Justice (ECJ) in Luxembourg, confirmed in a ruling last Thursday that airlines based in the EU carry liability for accommodation and other "necessary, appropriate and reasonable" costs incurred by passengers in the event of long delays, even for disruptions beyond their control.

NAV Portugal partners with SITA as Single European Sky comes into force

NAV Portugal, the air navigation service provider for Portuguese airspace, has partnered with air transport communications provider SITA to implement the data link infrastructure required to comply with the EU Regulations for the Single European Sky, which come into force this month.