

ULUSLARARASI TEMSİL IFALPA BELGESİ

Belge: IFALPA Daily News – 21 October 2013

Tarih: 22.10.2013

Kaynak: IFALPA haberleri · talpa.org

Dear Colleagues,

The IFALPA Daily News is now available online.

Here are today's top headlines. To read more, click on the title:

Turkish Airlines pilots freed in hostage deal arrive home

Two Turkish pilots held hostage in Lebanon returned home on Saturday night, along with nine Lebanese pilgrims abducted in Syria in a hostage release deal, which cut across the Syrian civil war.

FBI investigating laser-pointer attacks on two pilots landing at LaGuardia airport

The FBI is on the hunt for those responsible for shining laser pointers at two airplanes approaching LaGuardia Airport this week, highlighting a problem that is plaguing not only New York airports, but airports around the country.

Lao Airlines crash probe picks up underwater signals believed to be from black box

Investigators in Laos said they picked up underwater signals Sunday that they believe are coming from the black box of a passenger plane that crashed into the Mekong River last week, but that strong currents were thwarting attempts to find it.

Somaliland: UN reviewing ICAO-SFG airspace control agreement

ICAO should leave the issue of airspace control and administration to the Somaliland and Somali governments says the UN Special representative to Somalia Ambassador Nicholas Kay.

Vietnamese carriers plan fleet expansion

Vietnam's fledgling airline industry is poised for a boom as local competition heats up with fleet expansions, new routes and planned share offers that are set to make it one of the world's fastest growing markets.

4,000 pilots needed in the next 5 years in China

China's general aviation industry is developing at a rapid pace. But the sector is lacking thousands of pilots to help the industry take off.

LOT postpones request for more state aid

Poland's national airline LOT has decided to put off asking for further state financial aid, Deputy Treasury Minister Rafal Baniak told the Polish Press Agency.