

ULUSLARARASI TEMSİL IFALPA BELGESİ

Belge: IFALPA Daily News – 25 September 2013

Tarih: 26.09.2013

Kaynak: IFALPA haberleri · talpa.org

Dear Colleagues,

The IFALPA Daily News is now available online.

Here are today's top headlines. To read more, click on the title:

African ministers and aviation officials meet at ICAO to discuss next steps for aviation safety in Africa

The International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) completed a special high-level briefing yesterday on the status of aviation safety in Africa.

Three Chinese airlines order 68 A320 jets: Airbus

Three Chinese companies have ordered a total of 68 A320 aircraft, Airbus announced on Wednesday as air travel takes off in the world's most populous country.

Nassau officials fear increased JFK Airport noise

Residents and elected officials in Nassau County and Queens worry that a new satellite-based air traffic control operation will increase aircraft noise in communities near Kennedy and LaGuardia.

Lufthansa open to alliance with Gulf carriers

Lufthansa is leaving the door open to forming an alliance with any of the Gulf airlines, the German carrier's chief executive said, even though currently it sees no benefit in a partnership.

Japan Airlines, All Nippon Airways argue over slots at Haneda Airport

Japan's two biggest carriers, Japan Airlines (JAL) and All Nippon Airways (ANA), are locked in a disagreement over the arrival and departure slots at the Haneda Airport, as discussions enter its final stage.

Alitalia airline announces expansion plans

Alitalia, Italy's national airline, and SAVE presented in Venice the development plans of Alitalia Group at the Venice Marco Polo Airport.

Airbus says low-cost airlines will keep its A330 in production for at least ten years

Airbus SAS said its A330 twin-aisle jet could remain in production for another decade as low-cost airlines led by Ryanair Holdings Plc seek cut-price planes for the introduction of long-haul services.