

ULUSLARARASI TEMSİL IFALPA BELGESİ

Belge: IFALPA Daily News – 26 November 2013

Tarih: 27.11.2013

Kaynak: IFALPA haberleri · talpa.org

Dear Colleagues,

The IFALPA Daily News is now available online.

Here are today's top headlines. To read more, click on the title:

Pilots union lifts industrial action after new Air Malta CEO is announced

The airline pilots association ALPA Malta has welcomed the designation of Air Malta's former chief engineer Louis Giordimaina as chief executive for the national airline.

DGCA hires 20 pilots as inspectors to 'save skin'

The very real threat of the US flight safety regulator downgrading Indian aviation has forced the government to hire full-time pilots from commercial airlines for the grossly-understaffed directorate general of civil aviation (DGCA) as flight operations inspectors (FOI).

Emissions trading row set to flare up again

US politicians are calling for the country's airlines to be protected from being charged for their carbon emissions by the European Union.

Belle Air suspends all flights

Albanian airline Belle Air has stopped all flights after the company's bank accounts were frozen for more than two weeks.

AMR seeks court approval of DOJ settlement

American Airlines' parent AMR on Monday asked a bankruptcy court to approve a settlement with US regulators that would allow it to merge with US Airways and create the world's largest airline.

El Al launches low-cost flight brand "Up"

El Al Israel Airlines Ltd. today launched its new low-cost brand "Up", and is seeking to distinguish itself from current routes.

Flying blind: Weather radars fail, pilots look out for clouds

Cruising at more than 30,000 feet at a speed of more than 700kmph in the middle of night a fortnight ago, the captain and first officer of an Air India's A320 aircraft took turns to look out for patches of clouds on the flight path as the plane's weather radar had conked off.