

ULUSLARARASI TEMSİL IFALPA BELGESİ

Belge: IFALPA Daily News – 29 August 2013

Tarih: 02.09.2013

Kaynak: IFALPA haberleri · talpa.org

Dear Colleagues,

The IFALPA Daily News is now available online.

Here are today's top headlines. To read more, click on the title:

Abducted Turkish pilots' families meet with President Gül

Turkish President Abdullah Gül has received the families of two pilots, Murat Akpınar and Murat Ağca, who were kidnapped in Lebanon on August 9, at the Presidency Palace in Istanbul's Tarabya district.

Pilots: Five German airports not safe enough

Pilots' union Cockpit toured the country's airports checking to see if operations were up to scratch, Die Welt newspaper reported.

This just doesn't fly: Some airline pilots barely make living wage

You really have to love what you do, or be exceedingly patient, to consider becoming a regional airline pilot.

Fatigue during flight operations challenge for aviation sector

Human fatigue among pilots and air hostesses has become a major challenge for the aviation sector as it results in their performance going below required levels as they generally have long hours of work.

India to be removed from aviation blacklist

The United Nations (UN) aviation watchdog, which had clubbed India among 13 nations with the worst record of air safety oversight, has removed the country from its blacklist after a compliance audit of the Indian aviation regulator last week.

Emirates to double US destinations

Emirates plans to more than double its network of US destinations in the next three to five years to a total of 15 cities, up from seven currently, a company official said.