Air France-KLM: it may be unfair to compare its 1Q2013 with Lufthansa's, but... Monday, 06 May 2013 08:44 Two of the European Big Three reported 1Q2013 results within two days, so we can't resist a comparison. Air France-KLM's quarterly operating loss of EUR530 million was EUR171 million below Lufthansa's. Air France-KLM shaved net debt from EUR6.0 billion at the end of 2012 to EUR5.9 billion; Lufthansa's net debt is less than one third of this. AF-KLM's 1Q RASK grew by 1.2%; Lufthansa's by 2.8%. 'Team Montreal' fights to keep UN aviation agency Monday, 06 May 2013 08:42 Foreign Affairs Minister John Baird, Quebec International Relations Minister Jean-François Lisée and Montreal Mayor Michael Applebaum may seem like strange bedfellows. But all three levels of government have kicked off a joint lobbying effort against moving the International Civil Aviation Organization to Qatar, agreeing that losing the United Nations' only office in Canada would cause both political and economic damage.
