

ULUSLARARASI TEMSİL IFALPA BELGESİ

Belge: IFALPA Daily News – 7 August 2013

Tarih: 12.08.2013

Kaynak: IFALPA haberleri · talpa.org

Dear Colleagues,

The IFALPA Daily News is now available online.

Here are today's top headlines. To read more, click on the title:

Fire engulfs Kenya's Nairobi Airport

A fire engulfed Kenya's main Nairobi airport on Wednesday forcing the closure of a vital travel and trade gateway to east Africa.

Plane stuck in mud closes Thai airport

An airplane that became wedged in mud after skidding off the runway during take-off in southern Thailand has forced the closure of the airport, authorities said on Wednesday.

Runway safety lights now operational at Dulles

The FAA's newest runway safety enhancement tool, runway status lights (RWSLs), became operational on July 25 at Washington Dulles International Airport (KIAD).

Delta greenhouse gas emissions down 18.4 percent since 2005

Delta Air Lines has lowered its annual greenhouse gas emissions by 8.5 million metric tons, an 18.4 percent reduction since 2005. In its continued commitment to transparency, the airline has reported successful verification of its 2012 greenhouse gas emission inventories under The Climate Registry.

West Bengal government slashes tax on aviation turbine fuel to lure airlines

Chief minister Mamata Banerjee on Tuesday announced a three-year sales tax waiver on aviation turbine fuel in Bagdogra, making it the cheapest airport in the country for airlines that want to tank up.

Etihad Airways outlines major expansion of Australian operations

Etihad Airways president and CEO James Hogan, speaking at the CAPA Australia Pacific Aviation Summit, outlined a range of major changes to its Australian operations, including new aircraft, new routes, additional services and new airport facilities.

LOT cancels two 787 flights after computer reset

Poland's flagship carrier LOT cancelled two Boeing 787 Dreamliner flights to Beijing and back after it was forced to reset an onboard computer, the airline said on Wednesday.